

I Wish He'd Make Up His Mind.
 I wish he would make up his mind, may be
 For I don't care much longer to wait,
 I'm sure I have hinted quite strongly
 That I thought of changing my state;
 For a sweetheart he's too backward,
 I can't bring him out, though I try;
 I own that he's very good tempered,
 But then he's so dreadfully shy!
 When I speak about love and a cottage,
 He gives me a look of surprise;
 And if I but hint at a marriage;
 He blushes quite up to his eyes;
 I can't make him jealous—I've tried it—
 And 'tis no use my being unkind,
 For that's not the way I am certain,
 To get him to make up his mind
 I've sung him love sonnets by dozens,
 I've worked him slippers and hose,
 And we've walked by moonlight together
 Yet he never attempts to propose!
 You must really ask his intention,
 Or some other bait I must find;
 For indeed I won't tarry much longer
 For one who can't make up his mind.

The Alabama Verdict.

The bottomless Weaver, who is at present engaged in being the candidate for president of that—in the language of a deceased distinguished statesman—"d-d barren" idealty," the greenback labor party, was probably subjected to a severe shock yesterday. By a mysterious and ponderous process of reasoning he evolved from the vast and profound depths of his inner consciousness an idea. It was that the abstraction above alluded to which he represents, would be victorious in the election in the state of Alabama, and he triumphantly proclaimed two or three weeks ago that he was going there to see and conquer. Weaver prided himself on Alabama. The teachings of his party had been widely inculcated into, and absorbed by the eager populace, and he would either obtain a majority of the vote cast or scare the democrats so badly that they would be completely demoralized by the time of the general election. Day before yesterday Alabama spoke, and Weaver doubtless heard her voice. His own party, the independents and the republicans, are crushed and buried by a democratic majority of fifty thousand! What has become of Weaver and the greenbackers now? If a state they expected to win in defeated their combination (the strongest they could possibly make) by fifty thousand, what will South Carolina do with them?

According to the old song, "Will, the Weaver" was currently reported to be "a gay deceiver," but the Weaver at present under consideration, seems to confine his deceptions entirely to himself. Apostle McNamee and his emancipated party will please rise and explain the Alabama verdict, or receive sentence.—Greenville News.

A Sad Tale.

The Bennett family moved in the most fashionable society in Cincinnati ten years ago. The father was the western manager for several life insurance companies, was worth about a million dollars, and had a princely residence at Clifton, a suburb of the city. His wife was a brilliant beauty, and the entertainments over which she presided were notably fine. His daughter, Blanche, carefully reared and educated, witty and pretty, was the light of the house. A son was the remaining member of the family. The first change in the household was the elopement of the wife. She went to Chicago, where she died in disgrace. The son fell among bad associates, and finally went to prison for stealing. In St. Louis, a few days ago, a ragged, rum-crazed woman was arrested. This was Blanche Bennett. The heartbroken father, having lost his fortune, is a clerk in a western insurance agency.

I would just as soon kiss the back of a dapper plate as a man without a moustache, said a young lady not a thousand miles from here. And I, said another, would just as soon kiss the back of my cat as a man with one. From which, we infer, that kissing is a mere matter of taste—and the Good Book says, "taste not, touch not, handle not."

The Republican organs say they are sick and tired of hearing "De Golyer Contract," "Credit Mobilier" and "Salary Grab," in every reference to Gen. Garfield. Precisely.

They are talking of getting up a grand Republican excursion. Steamers will leave all the principal wharves November 2d for up Salt River.

LIGHTNING SEWER

THE NEW WILSON Oscillating Shuttle SEWING MACHINE

Is wonderful in its conception, unprecedented for doing a large range of sewing in textile fabrics and leather. Its motions are continuous, admitting of an extraordinary rate of speed, either by steam or foot power. Every motion of the treadle makes six stitches, thus producing about one-third more work in a day than other Sewing Machines. It has no stop motions, and tightens the stitch with the needle out of the fabric. It uses the well-known Wilson Compound Feed on both sides of the needle. It has two-thirds less parts than any other first-class Sewing Machine. Its arm is fully eight and one-half inches long and five and one-half inches high, and the whole Machine is very compactly and scientifically constructed in proportions, elegance, design and appearance. Its simple, powerful and perfect mechanism places it as far in advance of all other Sewing Machines as the telephone is superior to the tin speaking tube. The WILSON MENDING ATTACHMENT, for repairing all kinds of textile fabrics WITHOUT PATCHING, furnished FREE with all WILSON SEWING MACHINES, together with a Tucker, Ruffler, Cordor, Set of Hemmers, Binder, etc.

These Machines are on exhibition and for sale by

PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER

It has been used with such wonderful success in all parts of the world in the treatment of these difficulties that it has come to be considered
AN UNFAILING CURE FOR ALL SUMMER COMPLAINTS
 and such it really is when taken in time and according to the very plain directions inclosing each bottle. In such cases, the attack is usually sudden and frequently very acute; but with a safe remedy at hand for immediate use, there is seldom danger of the fatal result which so often follows a few days' neglect. The inclination to wait and see if the morrow does not bring a better feeling, not infrequently occasions a vast amount of needless suffering, and sometimes costs a life. A timely dose of Pain Killer will almost invariably save both, and with them the attendant doctor's fee. It has stood the test of forty years' constant use in all countries and climates, and is perfectly safe in any person's hands. It is recommended by Physicians, Nurses in Hospitals, and persons of all classes and professions who have had opportunity for observing the wonderful results which have always followed its use.

THE BEST EVIDENCE:
 I have long used the medicine known as PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER in my family and would not on any account be without it. When Children were last epidemic here, I used no medicine of any sort but the Pain Killer, and although myself and several members of my family were attacked severely, I am happy to say that the Pain Killer was equal to every emergency. I consider I should not be doing my duty to the community did I not say this much. If I were attacked by the Cholera to-day, Pain Killer would be the only remedy I should use. I have thoroughly tested it, and know it can be relied on.
 F. E. BERGINSSEN, Galena, Illinois.
 No family can afford to be without it, and its price brings it within the reach of all. The use of one bottle will go further to convince you of its merits than columns of newspaper advertising. Try it, and you will never do without it.
 Price 25c, 50c, and $1.00 per bottle. You can obtain it at any drug-store or from

How Watches are Made.

It will be apparent to any one who will examine a SOLID GOLD WATCH, that aside from the necessary thickness for engraving and polishing, a large proportion of the precious metal used, is needed only to stiffen and hold the engraved portions in place, and supply the necessary solidity and strength. The surplus gold is actually needless so far as UTILITY and beauty are concerned. In JAMES BOSS' PATENT GOLD WATCH CASES this waste of precious metal is overcome, and the SAME SOLIDITY AND STRENGTH produced at from one-third to one-half of the usual cost of solid cases. The process is of the most simple nature, as follows: a plate of nickel composition metal, specially adapted to the purpose, has two plates of SOLID GOLD soldered one on each side. The three are then passed between polished steel rollers, and the result is a strip of heavy plated composition, from which the cases, backs, centres, bezels, &c., are cut and shaped by suitable dies and formers. The gold in these cases is sufficiently thick to admit of all kinds of chasing, engraving and enamelling; the engraved cases have been carried until worn perfectly smooth by time and use without removing the gold. THIS IS THE ONLY CASE MADE WITH TWO PLATES OF SOLID GOLD AND WARRANTED BY SPECIAL CERTIFICATE. For sale by all Jewellers. Ask for Illustrated Catalogue, and to see warrant.
